Karma, Medals and Badges!

You want more fun while working? Writing blog entries, commenting on other articles and simply using Confluence on a daily basis with even more fun. Even if you already have successfully established Confluence, the Plugin Karma offers you additional value. Your Wiki offers a few functions that are probably as good as never used – what a shame for all the great effects! Do you and your colleagues update your statuses daily? Do you tag key words in every blog entry to make the search for content easier? No? Then just wait until you have installed Karma. Using all these functions gives you Karma points. Karma for Confluence offers your Wiki a new kind of power and more fun, even for the most enthusiastic user. Get in the competition and earn some Karma!

Karma

So, what will give you the big points? Actually this depends on your Karma configuration in the administration, but here is the list of the standard Karma setting.

Medals

Someone made your day today? Show it and award a medal. If you want to have your own set of Medals, you can change them in the Karma configuration.

Hero of the day

Time-Saver

Great Time

By default, you can give two medals per day, so choose wisely. You can award a medal either by using the Karma Overview or via the hover profile card of a user:

(P.S.: Receiving a medal will give you some Karma Points, too!)

Badges

Besides Karma, you can obtain badges for particular actions or an accumulation of activities. Nearly everyone can get the Badge 'Mayfly'. But will you be able to land the titles of 'Label Neurotic' or 'Morning Bird'? So, if you are active, you will be rewarded with the acquisition of badges. (Psssst, if it's too easy or too hard to receive a specific Badge, you can configure it in the Karma configuration.)

	Message in a Bottle Write a comment
	Hello World Update your Status
	Wet paint! Create a new page
	Mayfly Create a new blogpost

	Highlighter Add a label
	Sputnik Follow someone
	Love Letter Get 30 likes for one comment, page or blogpost
	Mirror mirror on the wall Upload a profile picture
	Morning Bird Login to the system before 8am
	Night Owl Login to the system after 9pm
	Lighthouse At least 30 people follow you
	Commentator Write 100 Comments
	Label Neurotic Label 1000 pages or blogposts
	Like an open book Write 1000 status updates
	Newspaper Man Add 1000 pages or blogposts
	I am what I am Maintain your profile

	Hyperlinker Add 100 internal links

Notification

Whenever you or someone you follow receives a new medal or badge, you will get a notification via email or the Confluence Workbox at the upper right:

You don't want an email? No Problem: In your own Karma Overview click the Button "Configuration". It is located in the upper right corner of the screen. Simply deselect the email notifications in the pop-up and you won't receive them anymore.

The Karma Overview

You can reach it via the user profile view or the user dropdown.

The Karma Overview provides detailed information about Karma Points of a single user. You can have a look at your Karma Overview, but also the one of your team members.

It is divided into four parts: Karma History, Karma Ranking, Medals, Badges

Karma History

The Karma History consist of a graph which shows your current Karma progress and the last 20 Karma Point events listed below. This graph will be updated once a day. In the list you can see, what you did for your Karma. When you have been awarded a medal, additionally the text, why you were such a good guy, is shown. The top right link on this column leads to a dialogue that shows all actions which you can get karma for.

Karma Ranking

Karma Ranking lists all users which already gained Karma sorted descending by their Karma Points. The currently selected user is highlighted in green and therefore it is easy to find the current ranking. This allows you to immediately see how many points you still need to surpass your team colleagues. When you click on the profile of a colleague, you will come to their Karma Overview.

Medals

In this area you can see, which Medal the Karma User was awarded yet and how often. The top right link will give you an overview on all available badges. Futhermore, there is a "Medal History" that shows the last 20 awarded medals for that user.

Badges

The last column shows the current status of the Karma Users badges: achieved ones and in progress. The top right link on this column leads to a dialogue with all available badges.

I don't want the fun with Karma!

What a pity! But here we go: In your own Karma Overview click the Button "Configuration". It is located in the upper right corner of the screen. Simply deselect your participation in the pop-up and you won't be listed anymore. If you want to join again, you won't have to start from the scratch. Just select the participation again and you will start, where you left (except the configuration is set to loose Karma over the time, if you are not active.).

Description

Show the medals in your system. Who is giving whom a medal. Filter to a specific user or show all user medals.

Parameter	Default	Description
showgroupedmedals	true	Display the medals grouped by its type
showmedalstream	true	Show the last 20 medals
medaluser	none	Filter the medal history to a specific user. Leave it blank to show the history of all users

Karma Configuration

In the Administration of Confluence you have the option to configure Karma.

General Configuration

- You can decide whether or not Karma Points are shown on each user link.
- You are able to configure the delivery of notifications to the users
 - DEFAULT Only to the people's network (Followers)
 - To all users

Karma Events

You don't want to give Karma, when you search for something? You want to receive more Karma on the editing of a page? You want that your users have to regain Karma? No problem! In the Karma Events section you can choose for each event, if it will give Karma and how much Karma Point is earned by doing so.

Furthermore you can define, how much Karma will be lost (or gained) over the time. This affects all users, but it won't decrease Karma Points from a user, who has 0 Karma Points. If you want to regularly decrease 5 Karma Points you need to fill in "-5". To schedule the interval of the in- or decrease you need go to the "Scheduled Jobs" administration. Choose "Edit" on the "Karma Decrease/Increase Job" and define the new interval via Cron Expression.

You can go back to the standard setting by clicking the reset button.

Badges

Configure the badges to match your needs! There are several things you can change on a badge:

Activated - Define whether you want to have this badge available or not.

Title - Insert a new badge title.

Description - Type in a new description for the badge.

Icon URL - Define an alternate badge icon! Simply insert the URL to your new icon. You can attach new icons to a Confluence page and reference the attachment URL.

Parameters - Some badges have parameters you can change. The parameter values can also be used in your badge title or badge description by using the syntax `${parametername}`.

Medals

You want to change you medal appearance? OK, here we go! These are things you can change on a medal:

Activated - Define whether you want to have this medal available or not.

Icon URL - Set an alternate medal icon! Simply insert the URL to your new icon. You can attach new icons to a confluence page and reference attachment URL.

Title - Insert a new medal title.

Additionally you can define how much medals per day a user can award to another user. The standard is 2.

The screenshot displays the 'Karma Configuration' interface with three main panels: 'General Configuration', 'Badges', and 'Medals'.

- General Configuration: Includes a 'Userlink Karmapoints' section with a checkbox 'Activate or deactivate the karma points on each userlink' (checked) and a 'Save Karma Configuration' button.
- Badges: A list of badges with their activation status, points, and descriptions. Each badge has a checkbox, a points value in a green box, and a description. The badges are: 'Message in a Bottle' (15 pts, Create a blogpost), 'Write a comment' (10 pts, Create a page), 'Label a page or blogpost' (3 pts, Create a comment), 'Other people like your content' (5 pts, Label a page or blogpost), 'Write a Status Update' (10 pts, Other people like your content), 'Follow someone' (2 pts, Write a Status Update), 'Someone is following you' (2 pts, Follow someone), 'Create a personal Space' (10 pts, Someone is following you), 'Edit a blogpost' (20 pts, Create a personal Space), and 'Edit a page' (3 pts, Edit a blogpost). The 'Message in a Bottle' badge is expanded to show its configuration: 'Active' (checked), 'Title' (Message in a Bottle), 'Description' (Write a comment), 'Badge Icon URL' (http://com1924914.communardo.local), and a 'Reset to default' button.
- Medals: A list of medals with their activation status, title, and medal icon URL. The medals are: 'Hero of the Day' (Active, Title: Hero of the Day, Medal Icon URL: http://com1924914.communardo.local), 'Busy Bee' (Active, Title: Busy Bee, Medal Icon URL: http://com1924914.communardo.local), and 'Life-Saver' (Active, Title: Life-Saver, Medal Icon URL: http://com1924914.communardo.local). The 'Basic Medal Settings' section at the top shows 'Available medals per day' set to 50.
