

Label Suggester for Confluence - Documentation

The Label Suggester add-on brings light into your Confluence.

The Label Suggester add-on for Atlassian Confluence generates label suggestions for pages and blog posts based on your content. Multiple factors, like titles, hyperlinks or other highlighted text elements are considered. For English and German contents natural language processing is used to make more accurate suggestions.